

Sexual Abuse Victims — Help is Available to You

The Albany Roman Catholic Diocese provides assistance to people who as children were sexually abused by Diocesan clergy.

We encourage victims of clergy sexual abuse to come forward for help.

To report an incident of abuse please contact the police or local District Attorney's Office.

To reach the Diocese's Assistance Coordinator, please call (518) 453-6646, or email assistance.coordinator@rcda.org.

The Diocese reports all allegations of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement.

For more information, please visit the Albany Diocese website at www.rcda.org.
