

Wishes to make your Christmas more merry

My Christmas wishes:

Respect people. Treat people the way you would like to be treated.

Believe in finding a positive side to any person or situation. Believe that a positive outcome is always possible.

Sharing is always possible, regardless of how little one may have. Love is free, yet the ultimate gift to give. It's always available.

If you don't like what you see, do something to change it. If you can't change it, try to see it from a different perspective.

Help others to be all they can be. The strongest, most powerful people do not knock others down; they pick them up.

Realize that if you do your best but fall short, you have no regrets. Always help others to do their best; that's rewarding also.

No act of kindness is too small. Every little bit counts, and it does not just add up. It multiplies. Compassion for others is incredibly valuable, as well as greatly appreciated. A little compassion goes a long way, and it may even come back to you some day.

Be proud of who you are, what you have done and where you are from. Own what you have done and move forward with what you want to achieve

Enjoy life. Enjoy yourself and others will enjoy you also. Tell people something nice that you enjoy about them. Build bridges, not walls.

Think with your heart as well as your mind. Use your moral compass to make decisions that are ethically correct.

*Eddie Brush
Schenectady*