The Hidden Face of Hope

We invite you to spend the day with Pastoral Care Ministry colleagues and friends as we renew our skills and spirits. In this time in our country, our church, and our world, so many of us are searching for hope. And yet, hope can seem elusive. Our day will focus on the search for hope in sometimes unexpected places, in surprising ways, and importantly, in the company of others.

Sr. Barbara Quinn, RSCJ, is a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart, United States-Canada province. From 2011-2024, she served as the Associate Director of Spiritual Formation at the Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry (CSTM). She continues to offer retreats, presentations, teaching, and spiritual direction. Prior to coming to the CSTM, Barbara served for 10 years as the founding director of the Center for Christian Spirituality at the University of San Diego.
